Experience

Storyhunter – Brooklyn, N.Y.

Product Manager – Oct. 2012 to present

Leading product development for the Storyhunter website, a network of 1,000 video journalists. Focusing efforts to release new features for the community, increasing sign-ups and engagement with the platform. Managing projects and directing freelance web developers and designers working on new products and features. Assisting with community building and communications strategy.

Online News Association – Washington, D.C.

Digital Manager – Feb. 2012 to Sept. 2012

Web Editor – Aug. 2010 to Jan. 2012

Oversaw the development, design, maintenance and administration of all of ONA's websites. Maintained the online membership system, administered all ecommerce transactions and managed ONA's digital infrastructure as a systems administrator. Implemented registration and other logistics for ONA's annual conference, as well as the annual Online Journalism Awards entry and judging processes. Also oversaw the redesign and redevelopment of ONA's website.

USA TODAY – McLean, Va.

Web Production Intern – May 2010 - July 2010

Helped produce projects for a group of reporters and designers at USA TODAY working on long-term web interactives. Developed an independent project and furthered my development skills with JavaScript, Python, and Django as the work demanded.
